Executive Department
State of California

PARDON

David [redacted]

David [redacted], a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 7, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, for the crime of corporal injury to spouse. He served 48 months probation. He was discharged on January 7, 1995, having completed his sentence.

David [redacted] has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tehama, an order dated February 2, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. [redacted] states that he has been clean and sober for over 15 years. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, David [redacted] has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to David [redacted] a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2013.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California
